Of the 78 who won the honor, which is given only to those who achieve an act of extreme courage or as it is officially expressed in general orders, to those who in action have fought with conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty, 76 were Americans, one was an Englishman and one was a Norwegian. For every 10,000 soldiers who were in action, one received the medal of honor.

Fifty-seven of the number were enlisted men and 21 were officers. Three Oklahomans and one Texan received the medal. Two of the Oklahomans were members of the 38th division and one of the 1st division. The Texan was a member of the 19th division, made up for the most part of Missouri and Kansas selected troops. Not a member of the 38th division received the highest American military honor.
